2. An objection submitted to the Committee shall not be accepted in any of the following instances:
 - a. If a reconsideration request has not been previously submitted to the Authority.
 - b. If the Tax in connection with the objection has not been paid in full.
 - c. If the objection is not submitted within the period specified in Clause 1 of this Article.
3. The Cabinet may, at a suggestion by the Minister, issue a decision amending the amount of Tax to be settled under Paragraph (b) of Clause 2 of this Article for the purpose of submitting an objection under this Article.

Article 33 – Procedures of the Committee

1. The Committee shall review the objection submitted to it and make a decision within (20) twenty Business Days from the receipt of the objection.
2. The Committee shall inform the Person submitting the objection and the Authority of its decision within (5) five Business Days of its issuance.

3. The Committee's decision on the objection shall be deemed final if the total amount of Due Tax and Administrative Penalties in respect of the decision does not exceed (100,000) one hundred thousand Dirhams.
4. In all cases, Tax disputes will not be accepted before the Competent Court if an objection has not been previously submitted to the Committee.

Article 34 – Enforcement of the Committee's Decisions

1. The final decisions issued by the Committee regarding disputes that do not exceed (100,000) one hundred thousand Dirhams shall be deemed as executory instruments.
2. The decisions issued in disputes exceeding (100,000) one hundred thousand Dirhams shall be deemed as executory instruments if they were not appealed before the Competent Court within (40) forty Business Days from the date of Notification of the outcome of the objection.
3. The final decisions of the Committee which have the power of executory instruments shall be enforced through the execution judge at the Competent Court.

Article 35 – Extension of Deadlines

1. The Authority or the Committee, as the case may be, may for any of the reasons specified in the Executive Regulation extend any of the periods specified in Clause 3 of Article 28, Clause 2 of Article 29 and Clause 1 of Article 33 of this Decree-Law for a period specified in Executive Regulation.
2. The Authority or the Committee, as the case may be, may at a request of a Person for any of the reasons specified in the Executive Regulation grant that Person an extension of any of the periods specified in Clause 2 of Article 28 and Clause 1 of Article 29 and Clause 1 of Article 32 of this Decree-Law.
3. A decision by the Authority or Committee, refusing the request for extension made under Clause 2 of this Article pursuant to Article 32 or 36 of this Decree-Law, shall be final and not subject to an objection or appeal, as the case may be.

Article 36 – Procedures of Appeal before Courts

1. Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 34 and 37 of this Decree-Law, the Authority and the Person, as the case may be, may appeal the Committee's decision before the Competent Court within (40) forty Business Days from the date the Authority or the Person, as the case may be, was notified of the Committee's decision, in any of the two following cases:
 - a. Objecting to the Committee's decision in whole or in part.
 - b. Non-issuance of a decision by the Committee regarding an objection submitted to it in accordance with the provisions of this Decree-Law.
2. The Competent Court shall rule the appeal against the Authority as inadmissible in the following instances:
 - a. Existence of a case of non-acceptance of an objection by the Committee, as mentioned in Clause 2 of Article 32 of this Decree-Law.
 - b. If the Person does not present a proof of settlement of full Tax to the Authority.
 - c. If the Person does not present a proof of settling at least (50%) fifty percent of the Administrative Penalties determined pursuant to the Committee's decision or the court's ruling, as the case may be, through cash settlement to the Authority or by providing an approved bank guarantee in favour of the Authority.
3. The Cabinet may, at a suggestion by the Minister, make amendments to the amount set forth in Paragraph (b) and the percentage set forth in Paragraph (c) of Clause 2 of this Article.

Article 37 – Special Procedures for Objection and Appeal

As an exception to the provisions of Articles 31, 32, 33, 34 and 36 of this Decree-Law, the Cabinet shall, at a suggestion by the Minister, issue a decision adopting an alternative mechanism for objection and appeal if the parties to the dispute are any of the federal or local government entities specified in that decision. Pending the Cabinet's decision and its enforcement, the provisions of this Decree-Law shall apply to the objection or appeal of federal and local government entities concerning Tax disputes.

Title Five – Refund and Collection of Tax

Chapter One – Refund of Tax

Article 38 – Application for Tax Refunds

1. A Taxpayer may apply for a refund of any Tax he has paid if he is entitled to a refund under the Tax Law and it appears that the amount he has paid is in excess of the Payable Tax and Administrative Penalties, pursuant to the procedures specified in the Executive Regulation.
2. The Authority shall review the application submitted under Clause 1 of this Article and notify the Taxpayer of its decision as to whether it has accepted or rejected the application.

Article 39 – Tax Refund Procedures

1. The Authority shall set-off the amount requested to be refunded against any non-disputed Payable Tax or Administrative Penalties from the Taxpayer who has applied for the refund pursuant to the Tax Return or the Tax Assessment issued by the Authority before refunding any amount relating to a specific Tax.
2. The Authority may decline to refund any residual amounts under Clause 1 of this Article in any of the following cases:
 - a. The Authority finds that there are other disputed Tax amounts in relation to that Taxpayer;
 - b. If the person is subject to a Tax Audit, and in this case the Authority shall not decline to refund the residual amount unless the conditions set out in a decision of Authority's board of directors have been met.
 - c. According to an order from the Competent Court.
3. The Authority shall refund the Tax under this Article pursuant to the procedures and controls specified in the Executive Regulation.

Chapter Two – Collection of Tax

Article 40 – Collection of Payable Tax and Administrative Penalties

1. If a Person fails to settle any Payable Tax within the specified timeframes under this Decree-Law and the Tax Law or Administrative Penalties, the following measures shall be taken:

- a. The Authority shall send the Person a notice to settle outstanding Payable Tax and Administrative Penalties within (20) twenty Business Days of the date of Notification.
 - b. If the Person fails to settle after being notified pursuant to Paragraph (a) of Clause 1 of this Article, the Director General shall issue a decision obligating the Person to pay the Payable Tax and Administrative Penalties which shall be communicated within (5) five Business Days from the date of issuance of the decision with the Tax Assessment and Administrative Penalties Assessment attached thereto.
 - c. The decision of the Director General regarding the Tax Assessment and Administrative Penalties Assessment shall be deemed as an executory instrument for the purposes of enforcement through the execution judge at the Competent Court.
2. If it appears to the Authority that the Payable Tax may be at risk of being lost, the Director General may request the Urgent Matters Judge in the Competent Court to issue an order on a petition to seize the assets of the Person that are sufficient to satisfy these amounts under control of any Person whatsoever, such assets shall be temporarily seized and cannot be dealt with unless the seizure is lifted by a judgement of the Competent Court at the request of the Director General.
 3. Tax and other amounts due to the Authority in accordance with the Tax Law shall have precedence over all the funds of the debtors or Persons who are obligated to remit them to the Authority by virtue of the law, such priority shall be over all other debts except for judicial expenses.
 4. Any Person who receives any amount as a Tax must pay the amount to the Authority and it shall be treated as a Payable Tax.

Chapter Three – Settlement and Collection of Tax and Administrative Penalties in Special Cases

Article 41 – Responsibility of Settlement of Tax and Administrative Penalties in the Case of a Partnership

Without prejudice to any provisions set out in the Tax Law, if multiple Persons participate in a Business that does not have independent legal personality, each of them shall be jointly and severally liable towards the Authority for any Payable Tax and Administrative Penalties related to such Business.

Article 42 – Settlement of Tax and Administrative Penalties in Special Cases

1. In cases of death, Payable Tax shall be settled as follows:
 - a. For Payable Tax due from a natural Person prior to the date of death, settlement shall be made from the value of the elements of the estate or income arising thereof prior to distribution among the heirs or legatees.
 - b. If it transpires after the distribution of the estate that there is Payable Tax still outstanding, recourse shall be had against the heirs and legatees for settlement of such outstanding tax each to the extent of their share in the estate, unless a clearance certificate has been obtained from the Authority for the estate representative or any of the heirs.
2. Payable Tax and Administrative Penalties due from a Taxable Person lacking capacity, incapacitated or who is absent or missing, or of unknown place of residence, or the like, shall be settled by their Legal Representative from the funds and assets of the Taxable Person, taking into account the applicable legislations.

Article 43 – Settlement of Tax and Administrative Penalties in Case of Bankruptcy

1. The appointed bankruptcy trustee shall communicate with the Authority to be informed of the Due Tax or of its intention to perform a Tax Audit for a specific Tax Period or periods.
2. The Authority shall notify the bankruptcy trustee of the amount of the Due Tax or of the Tax Audit within (20) twenty Business Days after being notified by the bankruptcy trustee.
3. The bankruptcy trustee may object or appeal against the estimate of the Authority or settlement of the Due Tax.
4. The Executive Regulation shall specify the procedures of communication with the Authority, grievance, objection and settlement of Due Tax.

Title Six – General Provisions

Chapter One – Confidentiality and Conflict of Interest

Article 44 – Professional Confidentiality

1. Employees of the Authority shall not disclose information that they have obtained or to which they have had access to in their capacity as employees or by reason of such capacity during their employment, except as specified or defined in accordance with the Executive Regulation.
2. In all cases provided for in Clause 1 of this Article, disclosure may be made only with the approval of employees authorised by the Authority's board of directors, as specified in the Executive Regulation.
3. Employees of the Authority shall, after cessation of their employment, continue to maintain professional confidentiality, and shall not disclose information that they have obtained or to which they have had access to in their capacity as employees or by reason of such capacity, unless otherwise requested by the judicial authorities and as specified in the Executive Regulation.
4. Every person who has obtained information pursuant to the provisions of this Decree-Law shall not disclose or use the information for any purposes other than those for which the information was obtained, without prejudice to the liability resulting therefrom where necessary.
5. The Authority's board of directors shall issue the regulations and instructions regulating internal procedures to protect confidentiality of information within the Authority, and the obligations of the Tax Agent in this regard.

Article 45 – Conflict of Interest

Every Authority employee is prohibited from performing or participating in any tax procedures related to any Person in the following cases:

1. The employee and the natural Person being related up to the fourth degree.
2. There being a common interest between the employee and the Person or between any of their relatives up to the third degree.
3. There being a personal or financial interest or any other relationship between the employee and the Person which affects him taking an independent decision.

4. If the Director General decides that the employee should not perform any tax procedures related to that Person due to any other case of conflict of interest.

Chapter Two – Time Periods and Lapse of Time

Article 46 – Statute of Limitation

1. Except in cases under Clauses 2, 3, 6 and 7 of this Article, the Authority may not conduct a Tax Audit or issue a Tax Assessment to a Taxable Person after the expiration of (5) five years from the end of the relevant Tax Period.
2. The Authority may conduct a Tax Audit or issue a Tax Assessment to the Taxable Person after (5) five years from end of the relevant Tax Period, if he has been notified of the commencement of such Tax Audit's procedures before the expiration of the (5) five year period, provided that the Tax Audit is completed or the Tax Assessment is issued, as the case may be, within (4) four years from the date of Notification of the Tax Audit.
3. The Authority may conduct a Tax Audit or issue a Tax Assessment after the expiration of (5) five years from the end of the relevant Tax Period if such Tax Audit or Tax Assessment issuance relates to a Voluntary Disclosure submitted in the fifth year from the end of the Tax Period, provided that the Tax Audit is completed or the Tax Assessment is issued, as the case may be, within (1) one year from the date of submission of the Voluntary Disclosure.
4. The Cabinet may, according to a suggestion by the Minister, issue a decision to amend the period specified for the completion of the Tax Audit or the issuance of the Tax Assessment as per Clauses 2 or 3 of this Article.
5. No Voluntary Disclosure may be submitted after the expiration of (5) five years from the end of the relevant Tax Period.
6. In the case of Tax Evasion, the Authority may conduct a Tax Audit or issue a Tax Assessment within (15) fifteen years from the end of the Tax Period in which the Tax Evasion occurred.
7. In case of Tax Registration failure, the Authority may conduct a Tax Audit or issue a Tax Assessment within (15) fifteen years from the date on which the Taxable Person should have registered for Tax.
8. The statute of limitation set forth in this Article shall be interrupted for any of the reasons provided for in the Federal Law 5 of 1985 promulgating the Civil Transactions Law, or any federal law replacing it.

Article 47 – The Authority's Right to Claim

Payable Tax and Administrative Penalties of which the Taxable Person has been notified of do not lapse with time and the Authority may claim them at any time.

Article 48 – Period for Tax Obligations

In case a period of time is not specified for the performance of any obligations or other procedure in this Decree-Law or the Tax Law, the Authority shall grant the Taxable Person a period appropriate to the nature of the obligation or procedure of not less than (5) five Business Days and not exceeding (40) forty Business Days from the date of the event giving rise to the obligation or the conduct of the procedure, and the Authority may extend this period.

Article 49 – Calculation of Time Periods

In all events, the following rules shall be considered when calculating time periods:

1. The day of notification or the day of occurrence of the event by reason of which the time period began shall not be included therein.
2. If the last day of the time period is not a Business Day, the time period shall be extended to the next Business Day.
3. Time periods and due dates provided for in this Decree-Law and the Tax Law shall be calculated according to the Gregorian calendar.

Article 50 – Controls for Paying by Instalment, Waiving, or Refunding of Administrative Penalties

1. If the Authority imposes or collects an Administrative Penalty from any Person for violating the provisions of this Decree-Law or the Tax Law, the Committee provided for in Clause 2 of this Article may, according to the presentation of the Director General, issue a decision approving the payment by instalments of the penalty amount or totally or partially waiving or refunding it, pursuant to the controls and procedures issued in a decision by Cabinet according to a suggestion by the Minister.

2. The Chairman of the Board of the Authority shall issue a decision forming the Committee provided for in Clause 1 of this Article, to be chaired by him or his deputy, and the membership of two Board members. The decision issued forming the Committee shall set out its bylaws and the manner of holding its meetings.

Chapter Three – Miscellaneous Provisions

Article 51 – Proving Accuracy of Data

The burden of proving the accuracy of the Tax Return falls upon the Taxable Person, and the burden of proof in cases of Tax Evasion falls upon the Authority.

Article 52 – Judicial Officers

The Director General and those who are appointed by a decision of the Minister of Justice in agreement with the Minister shall have the capacity of judicial officers in proving crimes and violations of the provisions of this Decree-Law, the Tax Law or the decisions issued in implementation thereof.

Article 53 – Tax Resident

1. The Cabinet– according to a suggestion by the Minister - shall issue a decision setting out the conditions based on which a Person may be considered a Tax Resident, for the purposes of the Tax Law or any agreement or arrangements to which the State is a party.
2. The Authority shall issue the Tax Residency Certificate to the Tax Resident in accordance with the provisions set out in a decision by the Cabinet.

Article 54 – Authority's Fees

The Cabinet shall, according to a suggestion by the Minister, issue a decision specifying the fees due to the Authority in implementation of the provisions of this Decree-Law and its Executive Regulation.

Article 55 – Abrogation

1. Federal Law No. 7 of 2017 on Tax Procedures and its amendments shall be repealed.
2. All provisions contrary to or inconsistent with the provisions of this Decree-Law shall be abrogated.
3. The Executive Regulation of Federal Law No. 7 of 2017 on Tax Procedures and its amendments and any decisions issued in implementation thereof shall remain in force insofar as they do not contradict with the provisions of this Decree-Law until the issuance an Executive Regulation and decisions replacing them in accordance with the provisions of this Decree-Law.

Article 56 – Executive Regulation

The Cabinet shall, according to a suggestion by the Minister, issue the Executive Regulation of this Decree-Law.

Article 57 – Publication and Application of this Decree-Law
